

COMPANY NOTIFICATION

New Managing Director for Europe, Middle East and Africa

November 2023

Dear Customers, Partners and Suppliers,

We are pleased to inform you that Catrin Möhwald has been named Managing Director EMEA at ELPRO-BUCHS AG as of September 1, 2023. She will directly oversee all sales, project and service activities throughout Europe, the Middle East and Africa. Möhwald brings 18 years of leadership experience to ELPRO, having held prior key management positions in finance and in the sports, automotive and recruitment industries.

Through Möhwald's leadership, we see new opportunities to expand ELPRO's presence and enhance our support for customers and partners in the Western and Nordic countries in Europe.

In her new role, Catrin Möhwald will be supported by Bradley Bevan, Sales Director Europe NW, and Bernhard Jans, Director Project and Services EMEA, along with their experienced sales, service and project management teams throughout Europe.

Bevan, an ELPRO employee since 2019, will direct all sales activities and support ELPRO customers in Belgium, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom, Ireland, Denmark and Sweden. He is based in the UK.

Jans, who has been with ELPRO since 2012 and was previously a global key account manager, will now direct all project management and field service assignments throughout the EMEA region. He is based in Switzerland.

For general inquiries or customer field and technical support throughout the EMEA, contact your ELPRO sales representative or email online@elpro.com.

Best regards,

Josef Schmid
